Community Eligibility Provision

Salt Lake City, Guadalupe School is pleased to announce that Guadalupe School has been approved to participate in the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). Beginning August 22, 2022, breakfast and lunch will be available to all children who attend at no charge and eliminate the collection of meal applications for free, reduced-price, and paid student meals. CEP reduces burdens for both families and school administrators and helps ensure that students receive nutritious meals.

Please note children attending schools that are listed above will not need to fill out an application to receive free or reduced priced meals. {NO application is required}

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
